

Young people have their say on climate change

Nearly 3,000 young people from schools and youth groups across Gloucestershire responded to a Climate Action Survey.

<https://www.gloucestershire.gov.uk/gloucestershire-county-council-news/news-december-2022/young-people-have-their-say-on-climate-change/>

Gloucestershire Road Safety Partnership relaunches

Gloucestershire's Road Safety Partnership relaunched on 2 December with presentations from all the key partners to renew their commitment to joint working and vision zero – a global road safety project which aims to achieve zero deaths or serious injuries on our roads.

<https://www.gloucestershire.gov.uk/gloucestershire-county-council-news/news-december-2022/gloucestershire-road-safety-partnership-relaunches/>

Tree numbers boosted by planting days

As part of the county council's ambition to plant one million trees by 2030, three planting days have been held.

<https://www.gloucestershire.gov.uk/gloucestershire-county-council-news/news-december-2022/tree-numbers-boosted-by-planting-days/>

Keep your home safe this winter

Residents are being advised to keep their home safe this winter by following advice from Gloucestershire Fire and Rescue Service (GFRS).

<https://www.gloucestershire.gov.uk/gloucestershire-county-council-news/news-december-2022/keep-your-home-safe-this-winter/>

Education teams present Restorative Practice vision to the Government

Education teams at Gloucestershire County Council were recently invited by the Government to present their vision for Restorative Practice and how it can drive improved inclusion across the local and national education system.

<https://www.gloucestershire.gov.uk/gloucestershire-county-council-news/news-december-2022/education-teams-present-restorative-practice-vision-to-the-government/>

Thanks
Vernon

Cllr Vernon Smith
Email vernon.smith@gloucestershire.gov.uk